2019 Graduation

On Wednesday 11th December 2019, Campion College celebrated its 12th Graduation Mass and Ceremony, at St Patrick's Cathedral in Parramatta.

We were honoured by the presence of two distinguished guests: Very Reverend Anthony Percy, Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn and Professor of Bioethics Margaret Somerville of the University of Notre Dame Australia.

Very Rev Percy celebrated the Mass and gave a stirring homily on the importance of the two great "lights" that human beings are gifted with: faith and reason. He used the Prophet Isaiah (40) as his "bouncing board":

*Young men may grow tired and weary,
youths may stumble,
but those who hope in the Lord renew their strength,
they put out wings like eagles.
They run and do not grow weary,
walk and never tire.*

with great joy and hope for the future. And may you remain, throughout long, intellectually, emotionally and spiritually rich personal and professional lives, the very best examples of ethical lemmings. Be not afraid. Be brave. And may you always be Blessed."

(Read Prof Somerville's full graduation address at: www.campion.edu.au/margaretspeech)

The Valedictory Address was given by outgoing Campion College Student Association President, Rainier Juanta, who reflected on the intellectual and spiritual benefits of his time at Campion. "Campion is a strange place to the rest of the world. But it is also strange in the best of ways. Because nowhere else can you find a group of people like our year, who embrace their strangeness." In his speech, Rainier explained what he meant by this "strangeness" during his Valedictory Speech. "It is strange to think that these people braved the wind and the rain for hours to stand up for the unborn; they cut short those precious hours of sleep and missed out on lunch to visit our Lord in the chapel. They leave their homes and reject offers from prestigious universities to study the Liberal Arts in little old Toongabbie." (Read Rainier's valedictory speech at: www.campion.edu.au/rainierspeech)

St. John Paul II in Fides et Ratio, the only papal encyclical to be translated into Arabic, used the imagery of the "wings" of faith and reason. By these "wings" the human spirit is able to soar to God, and so whilst time continues its relentless march, human beings are able to maintain youthfulness in spirit. The message hit the mark.

“ Graduation is always a wonderful and moving occasion. ”

In Prof Somerville's opening address she said, "It's customary for speakers at graduations to try to communicate to graduates some words of wisdom that they will treasure, and I mused on what they might be." Prof Somerville went on to speak about choosing our area of work, transcendence, cynicism, hope, obligations to future generations, lemmings, science and religion. She concluded saying, "So, to sum up, my one piece of advice to you, today, as you leave your alma mater, Campion College: It is that in making decisions which will affect your life you should give much weight to considerations of where you are most likely to find meaning, experience transcendence - the feeling of belonging to something bigger than just yourself - and encounter amazement, wonder and awe. This is a wonderful day for you and your families and friends - may you celebrate it

The 2019 graduating class included 28 graduates and five diplomates. Additionally, two students: Simon-Pieter Doodeman and Cecilia Kent, received the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Liberal Arts and also the Diploma of Classical Languages.

This year the college medal, Campion's highest academic achievement, was awarded to Brianna McKee. Her average mark was 90.

Campion President Dr Paul Morrissey thanked the families and friends of the graduates for supporting them on such an important occasion. "Graduation is always a wonderful and moving occasion, and I want to thank all the families and friends for making the time to come and show their support for our graduates, not just at Wednesday's ceremony, but throughout their years of study at Campion."

The day ended with an afternoon tea with family and friends celebrating the students' graduation.

Campion College Medallist Reflection

My first year at Campion College opened my eyes to the complexity of human thought, human history and the human condition. The dynamic interplay of factors on the historical stage such as brokenness and redemption, mind and matter, and faith and reason were brought to life by inspiring lectures and engaging tutorial discussions. The next two years helped me to develop a framework within which to understand some of this complexity. As a beneficiary of the Western intellectual tradition taught at Campion, I not only see the world differently but I also process my experiences of the world differently. I have been impacted and changed by the goodness, truth and beauty that is present not only in the Liberal Arts but also in the staff and students of Campion. Receiving the College Medal was surreal but the three year journey prior to this point has been the real treasure. Brianna McKee

Where Are They Now?

FENELLE McLAURIN

I graduated from Campion College in 2012 and started working for the Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney. I loved my work at the Archdiocese and found myself repeatedly drawing on my Campion knowledge, especially in the areas of Catholic teaching, ethics and philosophy and church history. Now as a wife and mother, the knowledge I gained during my time at Campion resurrects itself frequently in the discussions my husband (and fellow alumnus) and I enjoy, the way we raise our children and the way we order our priorities in life: some of our most prized family possessions are books! To say that Campion has enriched my life is an understatement. Campion College provided me with a foundation for professional success, introduced me to the wonderful world of philosophy, initiated me into a community of beautiful people, and set me on a path that enables me to pass on the awesome inheritances of the Catholic faith and a love of education to my children.

MOLLY HEALY

Since graduating from Campion I have been lucky to work and live all around the world doing what I love, helping those in need. For the past three years I have been working as an elementary school teacher in Haiti, for the non profit organisation 'Hand in Hand for Haiti'. Campion provided me with not only a strong liberal arts education, which allowed me to work in many different facets, but a love of education; a love which is the foundation of my current humanitarian work in Haiti. Campion has shown me that education is a humanitarian need that effects change not only in oneself but within the community. I'm proud to call myself a Campion graduate.

Campion College Summer Program

Following the success of the Winter Program in 2019, Campion made the bold decision to host back-to-back Summer Programs in January 2020. It was a decision made with both excitement and slight trepidation, but when we had filled almost half of the available spaces within two weeks of opening registrations, we knew we were preparing for an exciting Summer experience.

On Sunday the 5th of January, we welcomed our first group of participants to campus for a week of academic and social activities. During the day, participants had the opportunity to learn more about the liberal arts and experience our core disciplines through a series of lectures and tutorials. In the evenings, we offered sports, games, trivia, films and dancing. Day Three provided the opportunity to relax mid-program, with participants enjoying beach sports and coastal walks at Bronte Beach. Before we knew it, Day Five was upon us and it was time to pack-up, say our farewells and prepare for our second program.

In total, we welcomed 80 participants across the two programs. Over a third of participants travelled from interstate to get a taste of Campion's liberal arts degree and we even had two participants join us all the way from New Zealand!

We look forward to welcoming our participants back to Campion as students in 2020 and seeing some of our younger participants again for our Winter Program from 5-8 July 2020. If you are interested in the Winter Program, we highly encourage you to register your interest now so we can give you first priority to join the program when registrations open. ## Argos Ἀγνώστῳ Θεῷ

Lord,
 i will wait for you, like a dog;
 lying scattered, in the tear dust,
 drinking sweet darkness, ageing on pus,
 tired eyes conceded to the cloud,
 shattered by the shadow shroud,
 that veils all things holy.
 nothing left, but only
 to listen...
 every pore of the soul, aching for my Master's call, some whisper of His steps come close, or tremor in the chambers of His Precious Heart.
 i'll wait...
 ...in the tension,
 that hovers over the swell
 where eternity and line time, crash into one; there ...
 dead in the blissful vision and dying
 for the anticipation of the vision, suffering the sweetness of completion before the agony of becoming ...
 i'll wait.
 Lord,
 let me die here,

cocooned by cloud,
 asleep in the water, suspended
 slave to strange currents
 whispers through the between land,
 long living longing,
 throbbing with the sunflower
 leaning to the shadow.
 oh, may it swell up slow
 and take me.

life's a guilty pleasure,
 sliding, sting of honey on tongue fleeting, faster than death seeping, as dreams on breath
 all so light, hold it!
 it might just blow away.
 and do i even now wake?
 trampling dusky earth
 pressed by dusty skies,
 dancing jubilation in secret
 in lands unstuck from time.

so heavy the days
 deep nights of longing.
 i am giddy with life
 and the precious knowledge:
 that now is my day to die.

Sr. M. Luka

*Campion College
 Australia welcomes
 our new colleague
 Sr. M. Luka Juenemann,
 Student Life and
 Alumni Relations Officer. She is very excited to take on this new role.*

Sr. M. Luka is a member of the Secular Institute of the Schoenstatt Sisters of Mary who run retreat centres and support the lay apostolate in all continents. She was born in former East Germany and has been privileged to experience the Fall of the Berlin Wall and reunification of Germany. This event made it possible for her to learn English at High School and spend a gap year with the Schoenstatt Sisters in Australia. World Youth Day 2000 in Rome and a number of other events and happenings revealed God's call to her to consecrate her life to his service in 2001. She was sent to join the Australian province of the community in 2007, and since then has been able to undertake theological and philosophical studies, and work with youth and families.

Sr. M. Luka is committed to ensuring that the College establishes and maintains effective communication with its valued graduates, who are growing in number each year and we encourage all Alumni to contact Sr Luka for a chat. She is also looking forward to getting to know the students, staff and friends of Campion College. Her contact details are: m.l.juenemann@campion.edu.au / alumniofficer@campion.edu.au / 02 9896 9314.
